

GROWING BRANCHES

HERE WE GROW...

As Christians, we are commanded by God to “go and make disciples of all nations” (Matthew 28:19). Unfortunately, we can get caught up with the hectic schedules of our everyday lives, making it easy to lose focus on this straightforward directive. Thankfully, the same God who gives us the command also provides us with limitless opportunities to achieve it.

One such opportunity arose in early March when we at New Beginnings were invited as guest speakers at a Rangeview Optimist Club meeting in Aurora, Colorado. The club itself is made up of a variety of civic-minded volunteers whose purpose, among other things, is to aid and encourage the development of youth. The members are involved in several community projects including volunteering at the Ronald McDonald House, coaching youth sports teams, providing food baskets to the needy and assisting disaster victims.

We were truly honored by the invitation to speak at the meeting on behalf of New Beginnings. The club members were extremely hospitable and eager to hear about our ministry and willing to find out what they could do to assist with our ministry. Residents Tara and Mia accompanied me to the meeting and were excited to share their stories and experiences with the club members. Both ladies did a wonderful job during their 10- to 15-minute presentations in which they relayed how having God in their lives has made all the difference. They also expressed the blessings they have received as residents at New Beginnings! Mia ended her speech with the following poem that she had written the previous night:

*Deep in the recesses of my heart and mind
I was once empty...then the CHRIST!
The same God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob produced abundance which was plenty.*

By Sharing God's Word

by Heidi Olson,
Home Manager

Over and over drugs and reckless living tried to have their way, yet the Lord to me still whispered... "Let me in today!"

I was once a mother at her worst with much spiritual unrest.

Part of the blessing of having Jesus, is having New Beginnings and now...

Hey, I'm Mommy at her best!!!!

What a magnificent blessing it is to be able to share the good news with others. May we continue to seek out the opportunities that God so graciously provides. 🌸

HERE WE GROW...

With a Mother's Love

Love, selflessness, patience, sacrifice...what does motherhood mean to you? Psalm 127 tells us that children are a reward from the Lord and through them mothers are truly blessed! At New Beginnings, our purpose is to help single mothers with God's Word to grow spiritually, make God-pleasing decisions, be responsible citizens in society, and be competent and loving Christian parents. Our existing residents are in various stages of motherhood ranging from the expectant mother to a mother of a one-year-old child. We have included their thoughts on what motherhood means to them in this special Mother's Day edition of Growing Branches.

Mia's Motherhood Poem

From the flower of spring that unfolds,
to the nursery rhyme that I have heard or told...
I embrace the mother in me!

From the bedtime song I sing,
that leads me to tell my children we belong to Christ the King....
I embrace the mother in me!

From the butter that drizzles and sticks to pancakes,
to the remembrance of how long Granny's cooking takes...
I embrace the mother in me!

From the sin or struggle I thought was mundane, to the reminder from God that it's the reason why he came...
I embrace the mother in me!

Hiyaw's Motherhood Article

What is motherhood? To me, it's the first time you experience the true meaning of love. It's the love that you have always wanted but didn't seem to ever be able to obtain. I felt that love after the initial shock had gone away about my pregnancy. I could see my stomach growing, and I felt happier as the days went by. It didn't matter to me that I was in a hard place because I knew God was watching over me. I knew too that he had given me a gift even though my gift had come at a bad time. It was okay though because I finally accomplished that sense of love I had searched for – for such a long time. Each day as I feel my daughter move inside of me, I fall even deeper in love because now I understand what my mother always told me...the love you feel for your child is the greatest love of all.

Ashley's Motherhood Article

Motherhood means to me caring, love and compassion. I want my son to grow up knowing who I am and having in mind that I am a good mother. I will always be there for him and have an unconditional love for him. I will never leave his side and will always support him through any trials and tribulations he may go through. To me, that is being a good mother. A trip down "Motherhood Lane" is not always easy, but it's worth it!

Tara's Motherhood Article

In my bathroom the toilet paper is on the towel rack, the lid is down on the toilet, and all things around the rim of the tub are on the far wall. The living room couch is on the short wall off to the right of the TV (which I can't watch from that angle), and the recliner (which I do not sit in) is in front of the TV. The dining room consists of a table and two chairs. To the left there is a night stand and then a tall bookshelf next to the front door. I've done this to maximize space in the living area. "Why?" you ask. If you walk in and take a look at the unorganized mess and disarray, it will throw you off, but there is a method to the madness. I am a mother of a now-walking, one-year-old toddler named Stephen. He does chin ups from everything above his head, puts everything in his mouth that is not tied down or bolted shut, enjoys water in the tub or toilet, and has completely turned my life... right side up. All praises to God, the Maker of this small life, who seems to embody joy itself! 🌸

Judy Schwartz

We extend our condolences to the Schwartz family and celebrate with them the victory that Judy enjoys in heaven. Through Judy and Craig the Lord touched – and continues to touch – many lives through the ministry of New Beginnings. 🌸

Easter in Heaven

The announcement from Craig Schwartz read, "Let's celebrate her Easter in heaven!" Craig and Judy Schwartz served as the first house parents for New Beginnings. On Maundy Thursday evening Judy was taken to heaven at the age of 70 years.

At the right time God gave us the right couple to get New Beginnings off the ground. When we opened the doors in October of 1993 we had no model to imitate and no veterans to call on. Craig and Judy were God's gift to us. With their "take each day as it comes" demeanors they chartered this new territory. They literally got the ministry on its feet and then navigated the challenge of relocating it to its present location.

Our Loving Moms Give Back

by Christian Life Ministries'
New Day Center Director Sharon Kurtzhahn

This article was taken from the February 2012 newsletter, Insight for Life, our Christian Life Ministries' affiliate in Little Canada, Minnesota.

After returning from the CLR National Convention, I met with our Loving Moms group and shared the story of a mom named Tara and her son Stephen and how they were both helped at our Christian Life Resources' home for mothers in Colorado (New Beginnings). It was at this point, that several of our moms thought it would be a good idea to collect change in our baby bottles for other mothers in need. They chose to begin collecting change that very day and for the next four weeks for New Beginnings.

Isn't it amazing that those who themselves need help, so willingly want to help others? I want our donors to know, especially those individuals and congregations who helped our Loving Moms at Christmas time, that our Loving Moms saw a need and a way to help other moms and they took actions. A total of $100 in change was collected and sent to New Beginnings shortly after Christmas. 🌸
